

Subject: Health and Social Care

Rationale: The vision for the course is that it introduces students to the specialist knowledge and skills needed to work in various care settings and these are underpinned by the cardinal wiseman compass for life. Through vocational study students develop compassion for service users in health and social care settings and be able to communicate with individuals so as to maintain their dignity and sense of being valued.

	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Year 10	Communicating and working with individuals in health, social care and early years settings	Communicating and working with individuals in health, social care and early years settings Essential values of care of use with individuals in care settings	Essential values of care of use with individuals in care settings
Year 11	Understanding body systems and disorders	Understanding body systems and disorders	Communicating and working with individuals in health, social care and early years settings Role Play's
Year 12	Building positive relationships Equality, diversity and rights	Building positive relationships Health, Safety and Security	Health, Safety and Security Nutrition
Year 13	Anatomy and physiology for health and social care Nutrition	Sexual Health, Reproduction & early development stages	Cohort have left